

Premises Registration is the foundation of a system to enhance animal disease traceability. This is a voluntary Federal-State-Industry partnership designed to help livestock producers respond to and minimize the impact of an animal disease outbreak. Premises registration provides source verification information to safeguard animal health, public safety and market access.

Contact: 850-410-0900

